Paraeducator Professional Learning Series

Topic: This FREE four-part online professional development series is a collaborative learning opportunity to support paraeducators, throughout the state, as they strive to reach their individual and collective professional goals, as integral members of a Local Educational Agency’s English learner team. All content and networking opportunities will be grounded on the California English Learner Roadmap (ELR) Policy, guidance, and principles “intended to guide all levels of the system towards a coherent and aligned set of practices, services, relationships, and approaches to teaching and learning that add up to a powerful, effective, twenty-first-century education for all English learners,” CDE, 2020.

Today’s Learning Outcomes

Participants will:

1. Reflect on our professional and moral obligation to provide and support high-quality ELD instruction (Integrated and Designated ELD) that promotes educational equity for ELs

2. Explore the Proficiency Level Descriptors and how they can help us to get to know our students’ linguistic needs

3. Enhance your toolkit to support differentiated language development instruction by proficiency level

English Learner Policy and Guidance
Moral Obligation
Do we believe that all students can and will learn in our district/school?

Professional Obligation
Provide equitable access to instruction for all students.

Legal Obligation
“There is no equality of treatment merely by providing students with the same facilities, textbooks, teachers and curriculum…for students who do not understand English are effectively foreclosed from any meaningful education…”

Lau v. Nichols, U.S. Supreme Court, 1974
CA Vision for English Learners:

English learners fully and meaningfully access and participate in a 21st century education from early childhood through grade twelve that results in their attaining high levels of English proficiency, mastery of grade level standards, and opportunities to develop proficiency in multiple languages. Focus on a Student

Think about an English learner student you support.

- What type(s) of English learner is the student?
- What are his/her strengths and needs in terms of language and literacy?
Students come to school with a wide range of home language resources to be tapped.

Students who reach proficiency continue to build breadth, depth, and complexity in their language use in a wide variety of contexts.

Next Generation English Language Development Standards

Proficiency Level Descriptors Continuum K-12
Think about the English learner you selected.

- What do you think the student’s proficiency level might be?
Enhance your Toolkit
Three Components that English Learners Need during ELD Instruction

Access to Content
- Visuals
- Total Physical Response
- Realia
- Labeling
- Repetition & review

The Language to Participate
- Language Purposes (i.e., sequence, compare/contrast, cause/effect)
- Key Words & Phrases related to the Task

Knowledge of How English Works
- Condensing Ideas
- Expanding Ideas
- Verb & Verb Phrases

Adapted from Sobrato Early Academic Language (SEAL)
Academic Language

Academic language gives students ways to participate in the content they’re learning.

Language functions are what students DO.

Language demands (vocabulary, syntax and discourse) are the tools students USE to participate in the content they are learning.
What is a Language Function?

A language function explains why someone says something. Language functions require specific language forms.

For example, seeking information is a language function. Some of the language forms needed to perform this language function are action verbs and prepositions.

Who _____?, Where did it happen?, When did it happen?, Where did you find that?, How do you do that?
Why Focus on Language Functions?

- Asking and responding to questions
- Describing people, places and things
- Expressing feelings and emotions
- Expressing preferences and opinions
- Comparing and contrasting
- Expressing cause and effect
- Telling or retelling stories
- Summarizing texts
How to ensure that students have the academic language to participate meaningfully in the learning?

Start with the content standards and learning objectives.

What are the verbs? What are students expected to do with language? What will they produce to show they’ve done it?
Step 1. Identify the language function.

a. Consider the key content standard.
b. Think about the language tasks that students need to complete (the verbs of the standard).

How will students participate in the content? What are we asking students to do?
Step 2. Identify the language demands.

a. Consider the language students will use to engage with the content during the lesson.

b. Identify the language demands (vocabulary, discourse, syntax) students will work with.
Let’s try it!

Describe ideas, phenomena (e.g., how earthworms eat), and text elements (e.g., setting, main idea) in greater detail based on understanding of a variety of grade-level texts and viewing of multimedia, with moderate support.

Describe characters, settings, and major events in a story, using key details.
Step 3. Determine what students will need to produce to be active participants in the learning.

a. Identify the scaffolds you’ll provide (graphic organizers, sentence frames, etc.).
Here is a fantastic tool for your consideration!

Language Functions, Graphic Organizers and Designated ELD
For Step 3, refer to the tool ...

- Select a graphic organizer
- Select inherent academic language
- Select grammatical aspects (language forms)
- Identify scaffolds (Prompts/questions and/or sentence frames)
Collaborative Practice: Your turn!

Step 1

CCSS.ELD.PI.4.6.Ex.
Describe ideas, phenomena (e.g. volcanic eruptions), and text elements (main idea, characters, events, and the like) based on close reading of a select set of grade-level texts, with substantial support.

Step 2

CCSS.ELA.Literacy.W.4.3.
Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.

c. Use a variety of transitional words and phrases to manage the sequence of events.
Collaborative Practice: Your turn!

Step 3

• Select a graphic organizer
• Select inherent academic language
• Select grammatical aspects (language forms)
• Identify scaffolds (Prompts/questions and/or sentence frames)

Communication
Collaborate with teacher to establish effective communication protocols

- Pre-plan sessions with teacher(s) prior to delivering lessons,
- Discuss best practices with teacher(s) as it relates to communication with students,
- Schedule time to meet with student(s),
- Communicate student progress to the classroom/core content teacher(s),
How do you and the teacher(s) you support leverage tools, resources and materials to support student learning?

- Which tools, resources, and materials do you use to support student learning?
- How and when do you collaborate to effectively plan and deliver instruction?
